COURAGEOUS LEADERSHIP

Wed, 27-Mar-2019 2:00 pm

Forty percent of club leaders say that “attracting new members” is the biggest challenge their clubs face. But is recruitment the issue? Or is it actually learning how to create healthy clubs that offer a vibrant membership experience, one that is irresistible to both members and visitors? Using stories of transformation from Rotary and in their professional careers, trainers Louisa Horne and Doug Logan outline one strategy for making necessary changes to the club experience while including members in the process.

Join us for this webinar if you want to gain powerful insight into making changes in your club and:

- Inspire your club or district to think in new ways about growth
- Understand how transformation can happen
- Take action to implement new approaches to lead your club or district

Step 1

The image shows a screenshot of the Rotary website's navigation menu. The top navigation bar is dark blue and contains the Rotary logo, the text "My Rotary", the website URL "Rotary.org", a "Club Finder" link, a search bar, and "JOIN" and "DONATE" buttons. Below this is a secondary navigation bar with links for "Exchange Ideas", "Take Action", "Learning & Reference", "Manage", "The Rotary Foundation", "News & Media", and "Member Center". The "The Rotary Foundation" link is highlighted with an orange box. Below the navigation bar, there are three columns of links. The first column is titled "Apply for Grants" and includes "District Grants", "Global Grants", and "Grant Center". The second column is titled "Give" and includes "Ways to Give", "Planned Giving", and "Donor Recognition". The third column is titled "About" and includes "> Foundation Reports" (highlighted with an orange box) and "History". At the bottom of the page, there are two photographs: one showing a group of people in a meeting and another showing two women wearing headscarves.
